HONOR LOAN
for participants attending the Full-time Master programs 2018-2019
Thanks to an agreement between Bologna Business School and Intesa Sanpaolo Bank, participants admitted or enrolled to the Full-time Master programs are eligible to apply for “PerTe Prestito Con Lode”, a long-term and low-interest honor loan, with no collateral required. The loan will cover the full amount of the tuition fee or the portion of it that is not covered by the scholarship.
What is “PerTe Prestito con Lode”?
“PerTe Prestito Con Lode” is a product designed to meet the economic needs of students, allowing them to focus on their studies and to conclude them without any worries. It is a credit line on a dedicated bank account where the amount required to cover the tuition fee will be accredited to.
Who are the beneficiaries?
Students admitted or enrolled to the Full-time Master programs for the academic year 2018-2019.

What is the maximum amount that can be granted on the account?
Up to 14,800 euro (full amount of the tuition fee).

When will I get the credit line?
As soon as you open the bank account at the Intesa Sanpaolo Bank. We advice you to visit an Intesa Sanpaolo agency at least 10 days prior the deadline of the first installment in order to get the credit line in time for it.
How do I get the credit line?
To ask for the credit line is easy, just follow these steps:

1. Register at bank’s website.
2. Visit an Intesa Sanpaolo agency with your admissions letter.
3. Open a dedicated bank account (cost free).
How many years do I have to reimburse the loan?
Up to 10 years.

When will I start to reimburse the loan?
You can start to reimburse the loan up to 18 months after the date the credit line was granted.
