

GIUSELLA FINOCCHIARO

Full Professor of Private and Internet Law
Department of Law
University of Bologna

TEACHING ACTIVITY

Full professor of "Private and Internet Law" in the Department of Law of the University of Bologna since.

She has been the scientific director of the "Executive Master in Security and Privacy" and of the Master in "Information Security" at Alma Graduate School at the University of Bologna and she collaborates also with the University "Luigi Bocconi" of Milan.

OTHER POSITIONS

She is the founder and the owner of the Finocchiaro legal firm, specialized in Internet law.

She is the Italian correspondent for several projects of the European Commission. Already a member of ENISA (European Network and Information Security Agency) Permanent Stakeholders Group, of ENISA Working Group "Privacy and Technology" and of the Scientific Committee of the European Privacy Institute.

She is a member of the International project "Accountability Phase V".

She has been a legal consultant for the Italian government and an advisor for the Russian government, as a member of the Tacis Project on Electronic Commerce in Russia. She was also a member of UNCITRAL (United Nations Commission for International Trade Law) as an expert on the legal aspects of the digital signature.

In 2011 she was the President of the session "Electronic transferable records" of the "Colloquium on Electronic Commerce" of UNCITRAL - United Nations Commission on International Trade - February 14th - 15th, 2011 - New York.

SCIENTIFIC ACTIVITIES

She has recently published a book entitled Diritto dell'Informatica, with F. Delfini, Utet, Torino, 2014.